Refer to Other Side of this Notice for Important Explanations

EXPLANATIONS

Filing of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case:

A bankruptcy case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by or against the debtor(s) listed on the other side of this notice, and an order for relief has been entered.

Creditors Generally May Not Take Certain Actions:

In most instances, the filing of the bankruptcy case automatically stays certain collection and other actions against the debtor, the debtor's property, and certain codebtors. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay. If you attempt to collect a debt or take other action in violation of the Bankruptcy Code, you may be penalized. Prohibited collection actions against the debtor and certain codebtors are listed in Bankruptcy Code § 362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail, or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures; and garnishing or deducting from the debtor's wages.

Presumption of Abuse:

If the presumption of abuse arises, creditors have the right to file a motion to dismiss the case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The debtor may rebut the presumption by showing special circumstances.

Meeting of Creditors:

A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time, and location listed on the other side of this notice. The debtor (both spouses in a joint case) must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date specified in a notice filed with the court.

Claims:

There does not appear to be any property available to the trustee to pay creditors. Therefore, you should not file a Proof of Claim at this time. If it later appears that assets are available to pay creditors, you will be sent another notice telling you that you may file a Proof of Claim, and telling you the deadline for filing your Proof of Claim. If this notice is mailed to a creditor at a foreign address, the creditor may file a motion requesting the court to extend the deadline.

Do not include this notice with any proof of claim or other filing you submit to the court.

Discharge of Debts:

The debtor is seeking a discharge of most debts, which may include your debt. A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor. If you believe that the debtor is not entitled to receive a discharge under Bankruptcy Code § 727(a), or that a debt owed to you is not dischargeable under Bankruptcy Code § 523(a)(2), (4), or (6), you must start a lawsuit by filing a complaint — or a motion if you assert the discharge should be denied under § 727(a)(8) or (a)(9) — in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the "Deadline to Object to Debtor's Discharge or to Challenge the Dischargeability of Certain Debts" listed on the other side of this notice. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the motion or complaint and any required filing fee by that deadline.

Exempt Property:

The debtor is permitted by law to keep certain property as exempt. Exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors. The debtor must file a list of all property claimed as exempt. You may inspect the list at the bankruptcy clerk's office. If you believe that an exemption claimed by the debtor is not authorized by law, you may file an objection to that exemption. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the objection by the "Deadline to Object to Exemptions" listed on the other side of this notice.

Bankruptcy Clerk's Office:

Any paper that you file in this bankruptcy case must be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed on the other side of this notice. You may inspect all papers filed, including the list of the debtor's property and debts and the list of the property claimed as exempt, at the bankruptcy clerk's office. The clerk's office is open Monday through Friday from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM, except on federal holidays. Additional information can be found on the court's website at www.ohnb.uscourts.gov, including Forms, Local Bankruptcy Rules, Administrative and General Orders, Judges' Hearing Dockets, the United States Code, and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

Legal Advice:

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office is not permitted to give legal advice. You may want to consult an attorney to determine your rights in this case. If you are a creditor with a foreign address, you should consult with a lawyer familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions regarding your rights in this case.
